

Charles B. Reifinger

February 16, 2021

Charles B. Reifinger, 92, a resident of Bethlehem, PA, passed away peacefully at Lehigh Valley Hospital, Muhlenberg, on February 16, 2021. He was the loving husband of Gladys C. Reifinger for the past 30 years. He was preceded in death by his wife of 31 years, Hilda (Meck) Reifinger, who passed away in 1983, and son Glenn, who passed in 1973.

Born in Tipton, PA, he was the son of the late Charles S. and Elsie (Beitler) Reifinger. He graduated from Kutztown High School in 1946. Charles was a proud veteran of the Korean War. He was employed by Caloric Corporation (Black & Decker, General Electric) and retired in 1985. Charles was a member of the American Legion, Brandywine Booster Club, Longswamp UCC choir, Brandywine Minstrel and G.E. Golf League. He was an active member of Epworth UCC for 30 years and previously was a member of Longswamp UCC for 50 years.

Survivors: Wife, Gladys; son Barry L. Reifinger and his wife, Paula; granddaughter Erica and grandson Brian; stepchildren Kenneth and Jere; step grandchildren Tasha and Tanya; step great grandchildren Jada, Kiera, and Marisa.

A graveside service at Longswamp Union Cemetery will be held at a later date.

In lieu of flowers, contributions in Charles's memory may be made to Epworth UMC, 3245 Oakland Rd, Bethlehem, PA 18020, or Longswamp UCC, 200 Clay Rd, Mertztown, PA 19539.

“ When I saw the obit in the paper, I recognized Charles' parents names. My grandmother and mom talked about them and I have photos. Mom died in April. She'd be 90, so they were close to the same age. We are related through Elsie Beitler. I wish I had gotten to know him. He sounds like an awesome man. My condolences.
