

Daniel Albright

March 1, 2021

Daniel Albright passed away on March 1st after a courageous 19-year battle with brain tumors, surrounded by the village of love and friendship he and his wife, Katharine (Corrao) and daughter, Rachel, built in their Orefield community.

Dan is survived also by his son, Jared, of Kutztown; grandson Ian and granddaughter Makada; half-brother, David, and half-sister, Deborah Stern. He is predeceased by his son Jeb.

Dan served in the Marines, earned his M.S. from Lehigh University, was a guidance counselor at East Hills Middle School and counselor at Valley Youth House. Most especially, he was an avid outdoorsman who shared his passion for nature through countless volunteer hours with the Boy Scouts.

Dan was, in spirit, a brother to Steve Tercha, and a dear friend to so many whose lives he touched with his unwavering strength and kindness.

A private mass will be held at St. Joseph the Worker Catholic Church.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made in his name to the Boy Scouts of America, or St. Jude's, c/o Schmoyer Funeral Home, PO Box 190 Breinigsville, PA 18031.

“ Mr. Albright was my guidance counselor in middle school back in 1994-1996. He was also my wrestling coach. He was always very kind and nice to talk to. He was always one of my favorites at middle school. I'm sad to hear he passed. He will always be remembered. RIP.

“ Way back in the early 90s that smiling face is one of the first I remember. He was so incredibly kind. East Hills was a smaller place back then and he seemed to manage showing up everywhere all the time and always with that same big smile. For a guy starting a new career at 30, he was a Godsend. His wisdom and warmth along with that of Lucy Kavas made me feel like I'd found home. When East Hills got bigger and his health starting fighting him, I think I saw him even more across that big building. One of my life's favorite memories was getting to sing for two such beautiful people in that beautiful chapel.

“ I was lucky enough to begin teaching at East Hills with Dan as a mentor. I think many of us counted on Dan to be a spiritual guide. I miss hearing his exuberant greetings, his corny jokes, and mostly, his great kindness. Katherine and Rachel - you are in my thoughts and prayers. May his memory be eternal.

“ Katherine and Rachel - I am so sorry for the loss of Dan, husband and Dad. I always enjoyed talking with him and when I was a little stressed, he would help me to calm down. He was such an asset to the the students and staff at East Hills and was so missed when he retired. I know he will be missed by you both, his family, friends and community. All the good memories, hopefully, will fill your hearts 💕. Thoughts and prayers will continue thru this difficult time.
