

Dolores Ann Soliman

December 26, 2022

On this day, December 26, 2022, the Lord has taken into his loving arms Dolores Ann “Lorey” (Hartman) Weller Soliman. Born in Reading, she was the daughter of the late Ray and Mildred (Guth) Hartman. She worked in the pharmacy department at Good Shepherd Rehabilitation Hospital in Allentown for ten years before retiring. Prior, she was a sorter in the warehouse of J.C. Penny in Allentown.

Survivors: Son Earl Weller and his fiancé Jocelyn Williams of New Ringgold; daughter Amber Roybal of Brunfels, TX; brother Edwin of CA; sister Mildred “Dolly”, wife of Julio Santos of Milford; grandchildren Lacey and Jessica; great grandchildren Kacy and Tristin; nieces and nephews. She was predeceased by a sister Shirley DeWald.

There will be no funeral services.

Memorials can be considered to Cedarbrook Nursing Home, 350 S. Cedarbrook Rd., Allentown, 18104.

Tribute Wall

CV

“ I am a niece of Aunt Lorey, daughter of her oldest sister, Myrtle Hartman Schein. I remember visiting with my aunts and uncle in Reading when I was a child. I have some memories of my cousins Earl and Amber. My condolences to the entire family. I know having someone in a nursing facility is difficult; having lived that experience with my own father.

---

Cheryl Schein Vourvoulas - January 06, 2023 at 05:06 PM