

Dorothy G. Abbott

April 3, 2023

Dorothy G. Abbott (nee Martin), 78, of Macungie, Pa., died after an extended illness on Monday, April 3, 2023, at Lehigh Valley Hospital – Cedar Crest in Allentown, Pa.

Known as “Dottie,” she was an exuberant and feisty woman who was kind to all. She loved spending time with her family and cats, reading, being involved with her church, visiting the Jersey Shore, and vacationing several times at Disney World.

She was born in Elizabeth, N.J. and lived in Roselle Park, N.J. She moved to Macungie, Pa. with her beloved husband, Charles W. Abbott, whom she met in Hawaii while vacationing and he was stationed with the U.S. Army during the Vietnam War. They were married for 52 years.

She worked as the secretary to the brewmaster of quality control at Anheuser Busch Brewery in Newark, N.J. She was the human resources director for Day-Timer and retired there as a telesales customer service representative.

She is survived by her husband; son, Scott Abbott; brother, Edward Martin (Marion); adopted daughter, Jennifer-Dee Molo; and cats, Lucky, Jax, and Harry Houdini. She is predeceased by her parents, Martha Dorothy Martin (nee Will) and Emil Martin III.

Services will be held at 10:00 AM, Wednesday, April 12th at St. Anne's Episcopal Church, 6667 Lower Macungie Road, Trexlertown, PA. Friends and family will be invited to call from 9:00-10:00 AM at the church.

In lieu of flowers, please make donations to Forgotten Felines and Fidos at www.forgottenfelines.org/donate or PO Box 62, Germansville, PA 18053.
