“ Elaine was such a caring person. I remember helping her in the food pantry which she and her husband ran at the church. We'd talk between clients. She also was a deaconess and a board member. She did so much for our community church. I also remember the beautiful meals that were brought to me after I got out of the hospital.

A person that departs from this earth never truly leaves for they are still alive in our hearts and minds, they live on. Losing someone we love is not easy. Take comfort knowing that your mom/grandmother/aunt is at peace with our Heavenly Father. Take one day at a time knowing that you will see her again someday and that she is just away.

“ Elaine and Joe were lovely neighbors and we are so sad that Elaine has passed. She had a very loving family and we marveled at all the family that would come to the house. Her daughters were always there for her and she did so miss Joe so now they are together again. Rest In Peace sweet lady. Nellie and Richard Lomauro

“ I remember the red velvet cake that Elaine made for our (Evans) family, and joking around and laughing a lot with her! Her relationship with Holy Spirit was no laughing matter-she was a faithful prayer warrior and loved her family so much. She was very sensitive to others needs and desired to obediently follow the Lord wherever He would lead.
