

Joan M. Lehr

January 16, 2023

Joan M. Lehr (Kern), 87, of Breinigsville, passed away peacefully on Monday, January 16, 2023. She entered into the kingdom of God, at home, surrounded by loved ones.

Born in Allentown, she was the daughter of the late Willard and Florence Kern.

She was an 11th grade graduate of Longswamp Township High School, Class of 1953, and then a 12th grade graduate of Kutztown in 1954. She worked for Caloric Appliance Corp. for almost 30 years prior to their closing in 1991. She then retired from J.C. Penney's of Reading. She was always known for being a hard worker whether it was at a place of business, at home, or on the farm as a little girl. She knew, after the childhood she and her siblings had, that she wanted to provide for her family and give them all the things she never had; which she did!

Her unwavering love for Christ and her family was admired by all who knew her. She was a member of Faith Church, Allentown, and towards the end of her life, enjoyed visiting Trinity Wesleyan Church, Allentown.

She is survived by her grandchildren, Heather Dawe (Kressley) and her husband, Patrick of Breinigsville and Lauren Serratore (Kressley) and her husband John of Allentown; great grandchildren, Kara Dawe, Breckin Serratore, and Addison Serratore; sisters, Nancy Heydt and Fern Fritz. She was predeceased by her loving daughter, Holly A. Kressley (Lehr); siblings, Charlie Bauman, Dolores Eck, Joyce Hein, Willard Kern, Kate McNamara, and Sandra Albanse.

A celebration of Joan's life will be held at 11:00 AM, Friday, January 20th at Trinity Wesleyan Church, 6735 Cetronia Rd., Allentown with a calling prior to the service from 10:00-11:00 AM.
