“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Naomi was a wonderful woman and I've known her since I was a wee child. My parents were friends of Naomi's parents and we would come to the farm to buy eggs as well as visit. There were always lots of cats around which at that time in my life frightened me. I remember the piano in the room off of the kitchen. I didn't know how to play but would be allowed to go in and tinker around. Naomi was much closer to my sister, Shirley Rabenold Rehrig's, age so I usually spent the time with the grownups and not Shirley and Naomi. Time went by and with life changes we didn't see much of each other but when we did Naomi was always very nice and pleasant to speak to as were Bertha and Floyd.

My deepest sympathies to the family.
