

Pauline A. Bortz

October 16, 2021

Pauline A. Bortz, 83, passed away Saturday, October 16, 2021 at the Lutheran Home at Topton. She was the wife of the late Charles A. Bortz. Born in Maxatawny Twp., she was the daughter of the late Paul A. and Anna M. (Warmkessel) Rahn. She was a member of Old Zionsville Lutheran Church. Before retiring in 1998, she worked at Kutztown Sportswear as a machine operator for 28 years and at the former Allentown Osteopathic Hospital for 10 years.

Survivors: son Timothy C. Knittle and his wife Pamela; sisters Carolyn Heist and her husband Donald of Hamburg, Marilyn Ackerman and her husband Charles of Fleetwood; 2 grandchildren. She was predeceased by a son Anthony and daughter Constance M. Eddy.

Services will be private.

Tribute Wall

“ Pauline was one of our patrons at the Brandywine Community Library. She loved her books and when she was well ,would visit a few times a week. She always had a story to tell and she was quite a character. We will miss her.
Sue Merkel and the staff.

Sue Merkel - October 27, 2021 at 07:42 PM