“ First of all, dear Stephanie, my heart cries for you and with you. Your mother was always a dear person. Over the years we lost touch with each other. When we came back to Pennsylvania in 1991, I eventually made contact with your grandmother, my aunt. All though I did not see much of your mother, I got quite close to your grandmother. It was through her that I would hear of things in her family. She TREASURED her family! She adored YOU! So, please realize that your mother will always be close to you...tucked away in your heart. Blessings to you and Steve and your two girls. Sara Smith
