“ Years ago...close to 50 years ago, your moms did me an incredible kindness .Looking back on it now I realized how blessed I was too have known her. We simply worked together at the Big N. She may have worked with my mother when she worked there also. Your mom, invited me to travel to Florida with you on vacation. My moms lived in Daytona and I hadn't seen her in a few years and that was a time on my life of very little money and not car. My moms came and met us where you were vacationing. Now it brings tears to my eyes. What a wonderful person she was. God's blessing and favor be with you all today and always.

“ So sorry for your loss. I wanted to say I think I worked with Sonya at the Big N in Jamestown. I recognized her immediately and remembered what a nice person she always was. I worked there in the fall and winter of 1964 and the same in 1965 while I was attending Jamestown Business College. My deepest condolences to all. Carol Parnell (carolparnell@roadrunner.com)
