“ It was an extended family for me, gatherings with Scott and Donna! Always fun, sharing friendship, making dinners, playing games, and conversations about life that lifted and deepened our souls. I am grateful for those times we all shared. Rest in Peace!

“ RIP Scott. A respected professional banker for sure. You may not know it when our old banker poker group rehashes for the thousandth time great stories only you and we lived. An entire different story line, equally as memorable, goes with your golfing buddies. Those of us fortunate enough to be a part of these events will always remember you and them. May God let you rest easy knowing all the wonderful things you have done for family, friends and others. Larry Johnson

“ To a very special man that God brought into our lives ...for too short a time.

Just knowing you wanted to marry me and let me walk down this last long journey with you will always hold a special place in my heart.

I miss you, but knowing that you accepted Jesus as your personal Savior I know you are in heaven now with our Lord and have only joy.

Scott was a funny guy ,and always making jokes. He thought my husband Tony who passed on may 16 2022 ,was a mob guy hiding in pa. We had fun together . Watching Donna care for scott in every way, and putting her life on hold ,and showing just how powerful Gods love can be ,was absolutely amazing . God bless you Donna . Your a great servant of God. God bless scott and rest his soul .
